3 GIRLS WERE KILLED

DOROTHY DIX POINTS WARNING TO GIRLS FROM MARIAN LAMBERT'S FATE

IN the eyes of the law it makes a vast difference whether the boy gave her poison, or she took it herself, but morally William H. Orpet is the murderer of Marian Lambert either way. After he had slain her good name, after he had broken her heart and killed all the joy in living for her, it didn't matter much whether he murdered her body or not. Death is kinder than life to girls in poor little Marian Lambert's position. And the men who deceive them might in all mercy say so. Perhaps if she had read the story of Avis Linnell and Pastor Richeson, of Grace Brown and Chester Gillett, and of Carlisle Harris, she might still be a happy little school girl.

going to school today instead of lying stark in her grave, for these other stories and a dozen others just like them are in their essence the story of Marian Lambert. Never believe that a man means matrimony until he comes with an engagement ring in his pocket. —From Dorothy Dix's article of the Lake Forest poison case.

EXPLOSION STARTED BLAZE

Two Fall River City Blocks, 16 Buildings in All, Wiped Out; Deep Snow Checks the Flames

Fall River, Feb. 16.—Two city blocks were burned out of the business district of this community by a fire which was brought under control early today.

The fire started at 11:30, caused by an explosion in the Steger department store on South Main street. It spread in all directions and was not under control until 3 o'clock this morning.

Pending examination by insurance adjusters, the total loss is estimated at $1,500,000. It was the city's worst fire since the conflagration of 1843.

Sixteen buildings were destroyed in the fire-swept space.
Help was called from Providence, Taunton, New Bedford,
Newport and adjoining towns.

The local department, with its assistance from outside, fought the flames to a standstill after one block on each side of South Main street had been destroyed and nearly every building between Spring, Pearl, Second, Columbia and Rodman streets had gone.

A man named Dwyer is reported to have perished under a falling wall of the Steger building.

Wind-driven embers fell on roofs far and wide, but the heavy coating of snow from the recent storm prevented the embers from setting other fires.

FLAMES SPREAD.
The flames from the Steger building spread to either side and leaped across South Main street to the Hotel Lambert opposite.

Nearly 100 guests in the hotel found escape by the front door cut off by the sweep of flames from the burning building. They were driven back, flames close on their heels, to Cottages on Page 4, Column 1.

MISS KATHERINE BRIS-SON, sixteen-year-old Lewiston, Me., girl, believed to have eloped to Boston.

ELOPING MAINE COUPLE TRACED TO BOSTON

The Lewiston police were today asked to search for Katherine Brisson, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Gar-ret Brisson, the wealthy proprietor of the Lafayette Hotel at Lewiston, Me., who is believed to have eloped yesterday with Frank Matthews, a bellboy formerly in the employ of the girl's father. The couple have been traced to Boston.

The girl is large for her age and would pass for twenty-one or twenty-two.

Matthews has been employed by the girl's father for the past five months, going to Lewiston from Springfield, Me. It is said he is about twenty-six.

Last Monday the father of the girl discharged Matthews from his employ on account of the attention he was paying to the girl. Yesterday afternoon the girl left her house, telling her mother she was going to purchase some clothing. She had on her four diamond rings, and it was afterward learned that she took fifty dollars of her own money with her.

Matthews is believed to have had the same money with him.

When the girl did not return home last night inquiry revealed that a couple answering their description boarded the 2:23 train for Boston from Lewiston. They were driven from Auburn, just across the river from Lewiston.

The girl's father and Officer Keith of the Lewiston police arrived in Boston today. At the North Station a brakeman was found who remembered seeing a couple answering their description on a train arriving here last night.

The girl was a white but with white feathers, a black fur coat and black velvet dress, and black shoes and stockings. The man was a fair rotund, a green box coat and a dark velvet suit.

BIG FIRE FOR ALLEYS

Two British Steamships and Tons of Munitions Burned at Brooklyn; Believed Caused by Bomb

New York, Feb. 16.—Two big British steamships, partly laden with munitions and other war supplies for the allies' forty lighters and British cargoes of oil, cotton and shells, and Pier No. 36 on the South Brooklyn waterfront, were destroyed early today by a fire which is believed to have resulted from a bomb plot.

A third British munitions ship, the Bellona, was badly damaged, but the fire on this freighter was extinguished by firemen after it had raged for five hours.

The total loss is estimated to be at least $5,000,000.

The steamships Bolton Castle and Pacific, owned by the Castle Line, were wrecked by the flames.

Thousands of tons of war munitions stored in pier No. 36 were burned.

FIRE FOLLOWS EXPLOSION.
The fire followed an explosion and fell by cotton and oil spread so rapidly that the firemen were unable to stop its progress.

Two seamen are missing.
Captain R. V. Smith of the Pacific and Mrs. Smith were injured on board by the fire which probably started yesterday with Frank Matthews, a bellboy formerly in the employ of the
girl's father. The couple have been traced to Boston.

two.

Matthews has been employed by the position taken from them southeast of Ypres were repulsed, the War Office announced today.

Rome, Feb. 16.—The Italian War Office announced today: "On the upper Isonzo the intense artillery action has continued. In the Mrazli and Vodil sectors and in the Monte Nero zone we have destroyed the enemy's trenches and dug-outs."

Rome, Feb. 16.—Austrian aeroplanes dropped bombs craft guns and fled northeast over the Adriatic.

AMERICAN CLUB BRANDEIS AGAIN AT TORONTO BURNED WINSLOW

By International News Service.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 16.—Starting with an explosion on the top floor of the building, fire company destroyed the premises at No. 11 and 12 West Wellington street, occupied by the American Club, early today.

In one of the most disastrous fires of the season, two shells were found, but whether they were loaded or not was not known. The explosions which occurred may have been from a shell in the building.

P. L. Hurston of Tulsa, Tex., was suffocated.

Captain Asa Minot, formerly of Boston, paymaster of the Ninety-seventh Overseas Battalion (American Legion), was slightly hurt, and Edward Johnson, bank salesman, was struck.

The loss is estimated at $100,000.
So sudden was the outbreak of the alarm to those who were asleep in the building. The explosion tore out part of the Wellington street wall of the building, and caused the roof to fall in.

Several officers of the American Legion were in the building at the time of the fire, but they escaped by the rear doors and windows. They were taken to the Ontario Club.

The American Club was opened in the Autumn of 1912, when several hundred American citizens living in Toronto bought the building.

The club, in addition to being the headquarters of the American citizens in Toronto, was the residence of travelers from the United States, and theatrical people making their home there while in Toronto. They were taken to the Ontario Club by the club was former President Tilt.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The flight of the United Shoe Machinery Company of Boston against the condemnation of Louis B. Brandeis as Supreme Court justice continued today with vigor before the Senate Judiciary Committee. Sidney W. Winslow, president of the company, under a searching cross-examination by United States District Attorney George W. Anderson of Boston, again attacked the professional conduct of the President's candidate for the highest court in the land.

He elaborated his recital of instances where, he said, Brandeis had used the information received through night watch association with the machinery company to make "false and misleading" attacks upon it.

cation this afternoon: "Not a single stroyed the postoffice and four busi-

MRS. MOHR REPORTED MISSING

Friends of Widow Released on Murder Charge Now Express Anxiety; Worn Out by Trial

Providence, Feb. 16.—The continued absence of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Mohr, who left town with her two children a week ago, without revealing her destination, commenced today to excite no little anxiety among her friends and relatives.

Although Mrs. Mohr denied the accused of her trial with incredible contrition, it was all over, she outlived her friends, and her relatives are afraid that her nervous condition was not sufficiently restored for her to have gone off alone.

Anxiety was first entertained for Mrs. Mohr when she failed to write to her attorney, Arthur Cushing, within forty-eight hours, as she had promised him. Since she left Providence, he has received no word from her, and claims to be at such a loss to account for her silence as her relatives.

Another cause for anxiety was the fact that, although when she started, she said she would go first to her sister in Providence, and thence to Dr.
Mohr's brother, in McDevansville, Pa., no trace of her or the children has been found at either place.

The worry at this continued silence of Mrs. Mohr was expressed by her sister, Mrs. Catherine Blair Sullivan of East Water street, Taunton, today.
"We are all wondering," she said, "if Mrs. Mohr's physical condition warranted her being off alone that she was just her children."

"She has not been here," she said yesterday, "but up to the present time we have not heard even a word from her. I am beginning to feel that she is in some place."

MELROSE WOMAN BADLY BURNED

One woman was trapped by flames and seriously burned before being rescued from a burning dwelling by firemen and eight other persons yesterday in a fire in a three-story dwelling house at No. 17 Cliff street, Melrose.

Miss Margaret Hall, a middle-aged woman, who was in bed, was not able to leave the room, but was met at the door by a sheet of flames which languished her clothing. Firemen rushed in and smothered the flames with blankets and assisted her to the street.

Two doctors who lived nearby treated the woman for her burns and she was taken to the home of a neighbor, where it is said she will recover.

WOMEN BARRED IN PARTY POLITICS

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 16.—The State Supreme Court today decided that women have no right to vote for national delegates or committeemen or political parties.

Dorothy Dix Warns Girls of Fate of Miss Lambert

By DOROTHY DIX.

If I had a daughter—a dear, darling little girl who was just budding into womanhood, and whose eyes were losing the limp look of childhood, and closing with the first wild dreams of love—I should not say to her tomorrow morning:

"Daughter, have you read ever your Ancient History lesson and studied your thesaurus to find the word 'poison'?"

No, no.
I should say to her:

"Daughter, have you read ever that little girl in Lake Forest, who was killed because the boy she loved and trusted her much, deceived her? I want you to read that story, my child, because it is like a real lesson warning along the highway that every girl must watch."

JUST BOY AND GIRL.

"This little girl, Marian Lambert, was scarcely older than you are. She was just eighteen, and she was a high school girl just as you are, and doubtless just as good a little girl and one intending to do as little harm. But she fell in love with a boy and because she was very young, and very foolish, and very ignorant, she let him persuade her into doing wrong—into taking the step that no girl can retract, though she tries to do the way through fits of repentance."

"They were just a boy and girl, and they met at the summer dance, and walked through the lovely forest, and she was very much in love with him, and he begged and tempted, and persuaded her into doing him. You think that the woman who do the things that degrade them are bad women, but they are evil minded and degrading creatures. Not all my dear.
Sometimes they get bad and hard."

"I think we should be able to show the nature of the thing."

Hint of a third girl, a resident involved in Orpet's life, today added a new touch to the case.

Orpet's friendship with Marian Lambert was admitted by the youth yesterday, but it was he who was engaged to Miss Celestia Walker of the Fall River, and that was his motive for wishing Miss Lambert out of the way.

NEW GIRL IN POISON MYSTERY

Counsel Assert Student Is Not Responsible; Dead Girl's Chum May Be Star Witness

Chicago, Feb. 16.—When William H. Orpet, the former Lancaster, Mass., youth, faces a jury on the charge of having murdered Marian Frances Lambert in the woods at Lake Forest, a fashionable suburb, the condition of Orpet's mind at the time of his arrest will be brought to the attention of the court in an effort to discount all the things he has told the Lake County authorities about the tragedy.

Orpet, accused to be taking things cheerfully today. For the first time since his arrest he was permitted to talk to a group of newspaper men in the jail at Waukegan. "I'll damn one of the accused young men's attorneys, who present Attorney Hanna regarding that his client be spared answering any questions concerning the matter with which he is charged.
Just say that I am innocent," Orpet said, and then began discussing college athletics.

200 TURN OUT FOR CREWS

New Rowing Season at Harvard Off With a Rush; Ernie Soucy Again Seeks Honors

TWO hundred candidates for the variety and freshmen crews at Harvard have reported and from now on until the Charles River becomes navigable they will work on the rowing machines in the Newell boathouse.

More than 100 candidates for the variety were welcomed yesterday by Coach Haines and Captain Morgan. Head Coach "Bub" Herrick was not on hand, being out of town on business.

Twelve variety eighties were formed for practice on the machines. The variety crew, which lost Captain Murray and Bert Harwood by graduation, was practically the same combination as yesterday, excepting that J. W. Mendenhall was tentatively placed in the second eight with his twin brother, Harry.

"Black" Land at stroke, and Henry Cabot at 5, however, were the only men in the positions they occupied last spring. Kenneth Parsons, the best football tackle, rowed at 4, instead of 2, and Captain Morgan being shifted from 2 to 4.

Ted Robbins was in "BIP Middle" place at 5, his old post at 2.

Mr. Mack States Has Sold His Last Player

By International News Service. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 16.—"I have sold my last ball player," declared "Boss" Mack, manager of the Athletics, in discussing the sale of J. Franklin Baker to the New York Yankees.

Mack explained his statement by saying that when he disposed of Eddie Collins last year he had no intention of selling other players.

"Circumstances, however, forced me to change my mind," Mack said.

"I decided then to reconstruct my team with young players, but the time never came again when I could again get my star players. I will give up the game. I have sold my last player."

Mack's statement was made after the Athletics had won the pennant for the second year in a row.

DEMAND WILSON ACT AT ONCE ON SEIZURES

By B. C. FORBES.
New York, Feb. 15.—The British government has seized millions of dollars of American securities dispatched from Holland to the United States.

A part of the securities originally contained in this packet is detained by His Britannic Majesty's administration in a prize court on the ground of enemy origin. This leaves the bankers here completely in the dark. Endless confusion, they declare, must result.

It has been common knowledge that securities bearing the German stamp have been coming to the New York market from time to time ever since the war began.

These securities have usually come through Amsterdam, and have been forwarded on Dutch steamers.

To settle first-class American mail assigned from one neutral port to another is an outrage," angrily protested one international banker to-day.

The action of the British government came without warning, bankers complain. Hereafter no seizures have been reported.

In precisely circles it was pointed out that Britain and France made the announcement long ago that no exports of any nature whatsoever would be permitted from Germany or Austria unless specifically sanctioned by the allies.

It is argued that investments conducted by the most valuable class of exports, since they can be so readily converted into money here, and the funds used to swell Germany's credit and interest in international exchange rates.

Further, it is declared that the seizures are made within the allies' territories, and that the allies, having taken care to insure that all vessels trading Amsterdam are obliged to proceed within the three-mile limit.

In the highest financial circles the seizures were regarded as provocative of great trouble between the United States and the allies.

Certain influential interests fear the effect of the new cause for quarrel.

The most eminent lawyers in the country were called into consultation by financial institutions, and plans were discussed for inducing the government to act promptly.

Almost every important international banking house, as well as trust companies, banks and brokers, have had securities confiscated to them since.

So far as ascertained, the "detained" securities were those carried by the Norddeutscher and Rotterdam for their last trips to this country.

Concurrent action by the financial interests affected may be taken, it was said.

One institution figures that $900,000 worth of investments addressed to it have been taken.

Four leading international banking houses are understood to have large consignments held up.

In many cases bonds and stocks in come from Holland have been seized here, "seller thirty" meaning that delivery would be made within thirty days after the date of sale.

Delivery cannot be made, of course, in cases where the certificates have been seized by the British government.

This will mean infinite trouble in the financial district.

Plans of the highest standing may find themselves unable to live up to terms of contracts in the security market in accounted a very grave matter.

Efforts are being made by cable to ascertain from Dutch correspondents just what was sent, as mail advice, it is stated, have been "detained" in many instances, thus leaving bankers here in ignorance of what certificates are now in the hands of the British government.

Financiers are strongly opposed to allowing a British prize court to pass upon the ownership of the securities seized.

They take the stand that a British prize court would be little likely to rule against the action of the British government, and that the situation demands immediate and emphatic action by the United States government.

The new development is taken to mean that the shipment of securities from Holland to America will virtually cease for the present.

What effect this will have upon continental exchange is a point keenly discussed in financial circles.

It is contended that if German interests have been selling securities freely through Amsterdam, the stoppage of this traffic will cause the quotation for rechartering to decline sharply.

Diplomatic developments are awaited anxiously.
